

For Immediate Release

March 15, 2009

Prominent Author and Expert Joins M&A Partners

DALLAS, TEXAS – Growth advisors, M&A Partners today announced that Dr. Alexandra Lajoux, widely published expert and best selling author has joined the firms Advisory Board. Ms. Lajoux is renowned for her expertise in Mergers and Acquisitions and Corporate Compliance. She is the author of the perennially best-selling "Art of M&A" series, including The Art of M&A Integration, The Art of M&A Financing and Refinancing, The Art of M&A Structuring and The Art of M&A Due Diligence. A few months ago, McGraw-Hill released the revised version of The Art of M&A Integration which was updated in collaboration with M&A Partners.

"It is our honor to have Alex join the M&A Partners team. She has been a valued contributor to our strategy as well as a wonderful person to work with", said Jim Jeffries, Chairman of M&A Partners. "Dr. Lajoux is an enthusiastic adapter to the nuances and changing requirements in our business. She has been a 'soul-mate' with our unique methods, tools and technology since 2005."

Over the past 25 years, Dr. Lajoux has worked with a multitude of executives and many organizations including the Big 4 auditing firms, Institutional Shareholder Services, etc. She is currently Chief Knowledge Officer for the National Association of Corporate Directors. Dr. Lajoux will begin her role with the M&A Partners immediately .

About M&A Partners

M&A Partners, founded in 1999 is a Dallas, Texas-based firm that assists companies and their internal teams to assure maximum value creation in mergers, acquisitions, corporate consolidation and revitalization. To learn more about M&A Partners, please visit: www.mapartners.net, or call 214-689-3800.

Media contact:

Teresa Moraska

admin@mapartners.net

or

teresam@warriorcommunications.com